SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To the School Board of Effingham :

I herewith submit my third annual report, it being the tenth in the series of such reports.

For the year ending June 30, 1928, our schools showed an average attendance of 67 and an average membership of 71. The percent of attendance was 95, the same as last year. We could easily have a higher percent of attendance if all the pupils would be as faithful as the majority are.

There are five pupils from Parsonfield attending the South Effingham School and one from Freedom attending at the Falls.

Medical Inspection

Miss Harriet M. Curren has succeeded Miss Buswell as school nurse and will carry on the good work. Last spring two clinics were held. The first was a Toxin-Anti-toxin treatment to prevent diphtheria. Nearly all the children were treated and the Schick test given this fall, showed that the work was very successful. This is a splendid safeguard against this dreaded disease.

Last spring, also, a dental clinic was conducted at which a goodly number of children were treated. It is very helpful to have such clinics every spring. Dr. Wilfred Roy of Rochester did the work. It is expected that another dental clinic will be conducted next spring.

In the inspection last fall Miss Curren found many defects in teeth, tonsils and adenoids. Parents should be anxious to have these defects corrected. Some good results have already been accomplished.

Repairs and Equipment

During the year the property has been kept in good condition. Minor repairs have been made. The yard at South Effingham was improved by grading. Furniture was varnished and floors oiled. Twelve adjustable chairs and desks have been placed in the Center Effingham schoolhouse.

For the coming year I would recommend installing a ventilating heater at Center Effingham. At the Mountain a book closet should be built and the inside painted.

Pupils in Secondary Schools

It is gratifying to see graduates of our schools going to higher schools. The following have been enrolled in Parsonsfield Seminary this year:

Vera I. Bodge, Leslie Chase, Paul Emack, Verna Bodge Harold Chase, Eugene Moody and Alta Taylor. At Porter Academy: Susie Meloon. At Center Ossipee High School: Monroe Wilcox, George Chase and Dorothy B. Davis. At Plymouth Normal School: Caroline Nelson.

Last June we graduated nine pupils from the eighth grade—George Chase, Dorothy Davis, Alta Taylor, Paul Emack, Leslie Chase, Susie Meloon, John Edwards, Clayton Moody and Vera Bodge. Seven of these entered a higher school in September. This is a good record.

On October 25, the schools welcomed the Rural Institute to the meeting at Center Effingham. This institute is conducted by the State Department of Education for groups of rural teachers. About fifty were in attendance and the program was excellent. Both speakers and teachers joined heartily in the discussions. The Center Effingham schoolhouse was open for inspection and many favorable comments were heard regarding the excellent work of teacher, janitor and pupils.

The meeting was held in the Grange Hall, use of which was kindly donated. The Grange ladies served an excellent dinner to which the teachers did ample justice.

A gathering like this held in the town is an inspiration to all school activities.

At the time of the World War, one man in every six examined was found physically unfit. One man in every four drafted was lacking in ability to read and write. After learning this, the nation set out to give each child a schooling that would make him physically fit and qualify him with education for the duties of life. We are still working toward that goal. As a nation we have not fully arrived.

The school aims are seven:

1. Sound Health
2. Worthy Home Membership
3. Mastery of the three R's
4. Good Citizenship
5. Vocational Efficiency
6. Wise Use of Leisure
7. Training in Good Character

The nation spends for schools $2,255,251,327.

The nation spends for tobacco, soft drinks, ice cream, candy, chewing gum, theatres, movies and similar amusements, jewelry, perfumes, and cosmetics, sporting goods, toys, etc., $6,239,860,000. For these luxuries we pay about three times as much as for schools. Can we afford to pay more for luxuries than for schools?

Money invested in education brings handsome economic returns to states and communities. If the right schooling raises the earning 10%, then 10% of our total annual income is nine billion dollars—more than three times as much as we yearly pay for public schools and colleges of all types. Herbert Hoover lists education and scientific research as first among the factors which are responsible for the nation's high economic position.

Following is the Roll of Perfect Attendance:

One Term: Alice E. Simms, Robert C. Simms, Helen F. Stevens, Paul D. Emack, Andy F. Nelson, Vera I. Bodge, Earl Amundsen, Alfred Amundsen, Evelyn Davis, George Chase, Mabel Beckwith, John Beckwith, Burt Beckwith, Elinor Henderson, Katherine Jones, Alta Taylor, Richard Taylor.

Two Terms:

Susie M. Meloon, Louise M. Nelson, Harold E. Hall, Raymond S. Libby, Lawrence Davis, Stewart Chase, Clara Marston, Grace Marston, Harvey Nutter, Percy Taylor, Dorothy Nutter, Mina Nutter.

Three Terms:

Ruth A. Smith, Basil Sprague, Leo F. Moody, Hazel A. Sprague, Clayton Moody, Gerald F. Barnard, Marcia Bower, Margaret Bower, Leslie Stewart, Dorothy

OLD HOME DAY and 150TH ANNIVERSARY

On Friday, August 24, 1928, Effingham observed its "Old Home Day" and the 150th Anniversary of its incorporation on August 18, 1778.

The morning was showery, yet a large crowd gathered to witness the first event of the day, the parade, which was led by horseback riders and the Sanford Band. Children's sports followed.

After dinner the band gave a concert for an hour previous to the afternoon program, while all gathered under the trees around the bandstand to listen. Rev. Mr. Scammon of Chocorua offered prayer. The first speaker was Mr. W. F. Fitzgerald retired broker and summer resident who was followed by two sons of our good old town, Josiah Dearborn, a lawyer of Springfield, Mass., and Judge Oscar L. Young of Laconia. Then came an extremely interesting feature, an address by Mrs. Nellie Knowles Leavitt, aged 83 years, of Parsonsfield, Me., and Brookline, Mass. Her address and a sketch of her life were printed in the Carroll County Independent of Sept. 7.

The ball game between Madison and Effingham resulted in a score of 1-0 in favor of the home team.

The evening entertainment was furnished by young ladies from "Shoreacres", a camp at Province Lake and by Mrs. C. P. Cook of Arlington, and this town. Dancing followed to music by Cole's orchestra of Freedom. Many family reunions were held and old acquaintances renewed and a day long to be remembered passed into the history of the splendid old town of Effingham.
